Open Call for Papers

The academic journal Lychnos now welcomes submissions to its open section! Starting in 2023, these articles – after having completed the peer-review and copyediting process – will be published online first. Lychnos has shifted to continuous publishing of articles submitted to its open section to help authors to reach their academic audiences faster.

Deadline for articles: No deadline, continuous publishing.

We also welcome book reviews as well as essays and comments intended for the Miscellanea section. These submissions are subjected to editorial review only.

Deadline for reviews: 31 August 2023

Instructions for authors can be found here:
